

PUBLIC EDUCATION IN THE AGE OF TRUMP

With the appointment of Betsy DeVos as U.S. Education Secretary along with other right wing and religious fundamentalists, President Trump has signaled billions of dollars in federal public education funds will be re-directed to private, charter, and religious schools. What will this mean for the quality of our schools and the growing education gap in the country? Join experts and leaders in our community to discuss what we can expect and how we can respond.

Panel discussion featuring:

Steve Zimmer, LAUSD School Board President

John Rogers, UCLA Professor of Education

David Goldberg, California Teacher Association Secretary-Treasurer

Deborah Kaye, LA College Faculty Guild Recording Secretary

Moderated by Jeffrey Kaye, Freelance Journalist

Sunday, February 26, 2017

10am Doors Open | 10:15-12:30pm Program

This free talk is part of the monthly Politics & Culture series presented by the Sholem Community and Workmen's Circle/Arbeter Ring. For more info contact judyc@sholem.org.

Westside Neighborhood School

5401 Beethoven St., Los Angeles 90066

(Parking & entrance at rear of building, from Coral Tree Place)

Admission is free | Bagels & coffee served | Wheelchair accessible

The Sholem Community offers secular Jewish programs for progressive Jews and intercultural families.

Sholem's non-religious Sunday school will be in session for kids 5-14 years old.

Interested parents may email ross@sholem.org to have their child/ren sit in on a class.

www.sholem.org | 310.984.6935